

BEFORE THE CITY COUNCIL OF CITY OF DONALD, OREGON

In the Matter of Proclaiming of Observation of Arbor Day

PROCLAMATION

This matter came before the Donald City Council at its regularly scheduled meeting on April 12, 2022, to proclaim the City of Donald is recognized by the Arbor Day Foundation as a member of the Tree City USA program and furthermore to proclaim Arbor Week in Donald from Sunday, April 24, 2022 and commencing Friday, April 29, 2022.

WHEREAS, in 1872 J. Sterling Morton proposed to the Nebraska Board of Agriculture that a special day be set aside for planting trees; and

WHEREAS, this holiday, called Arbor Day, was first observed with the planting of more than a million trees in Nebraska; and

WHEREAS, Arbor Day is now observed throughout the great state of Oregon, the nation, and the world; and

WHEREAS, Governor Kate Brown of Oregon proclaimed April as Oregon Arbor Month giving a month-long recognition of the vital contribution of trees on our individual and communal well-being; and

WHEREAS, trees are a renewable resource giving us paper, wood for our homes, fuel for our fires and countless other wood products; and

WHEREAS, trees in our city increase property values, enhance the economic vitality of business areas, and beautify our community; and

WHEREAS, properly sited, selected, and maintained trees in our city make up an urban forest that improves the quality of our air, shades our homes and yards in summer, helps to tame the winds in winter, provides habitat for birds, pollinators, and other animals, and generally lifts the spirits of our residents; and

WHEREAS, well-managed forests and woodlands are known to reduce soil erosion, moderate the climate, reduce the perils of flooding, sustain our precious drinking water, shelter abundant wildlife, and provide us with numerous outdoor recreation opportunities; and

WHEREAS, trees, wherever they are planted, are a source of joy and spiritual renewal; and

WHEREAS, the City of Donald was recognized as a Tree City USA for the second time on February 25, 2022 by the National Arbor Day Foundation and desires to continue its' tree-planting ways.

Now, Therefore, I, Rick Olmsted, Mayor of the City of Donald, do hereby proclaim April 24, 2022 through April 29, 2022 as Arbor Week in the City of Donald. I urge all of our community members to celebrate Arbor Day and I want to invite you and your families to attend the annual tree planting on Friday, April 29 at 6:30pm at the Donald Hometown Park.

Further, I urge all of our community members to plant trees to gladden the heart and promote the well-being of this and future generations.

THEREFORE, I have ordered there be placed on this proclamation, the seal of the City of Donald and hereby place my signature on this 12th day of April, 2022.
